What is the lawsuit about? The name of the lawsuit is Apaliski, et al. v. Molekule, Inc., No. 1:20-cv-01548-RGA, pending in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. In the lawsuit, Plaintiffs allege that Molekule falsely advertised its Air Purifiers (namely, the Molekule Air, Molekule Air Pro, Molekule Air Mini, the Molekule Air Mini+, and/or the Molekule Air Pro Rx). Molekule denies all of Plaintiffs' allegations and maintains that its advertising has been accurate at all times. The Court has not decided who is right.

You received this notice because sale records indicate you may be a Class Member and eligible to receive a Cash Payment and Coupon. You are included in the Settlement Class if you purchased an Air Purifier from a third-party seller such as Amazon, b8ta, Best Buy, MoMa Design Store NYC, and Sprout on or before October 12, 2021 and, as of October 12, 2021, had not agreed to the arbitration provision in Molekule's Terms & Conditions. Based on the estimated class size and value of the settlement, the average net amount in cash Settlement Class Members would receive from the Settlement if they purchased one Air Purifier is $43.80.
